11th Anniversary of ICDL Iran Celebrated with ICDL Day on 22 July

27 August 2015

22 July was ICDL Day in Iran, as the 11th anniversary of the establishment of ICDL Iran was celebrated. A variety of activities were held to mark the day, including radio interviews broadcast on the Islamic Republic of Iran National Radio. Listeners had the chance to call-in with their questions about the ICDL programme, while pre-recorded segments addressed topics such as the future of ICDL in Iran. A discount on registration fees for the Computer Aided Design, Image Editing, Web Editing, and Computer Essentials modules was also announced for candidates who register by the end of the summer.
